NOTICE DEADLINES IN SENTENCING PROCEEDINGS

After receiving a copy of the Court Procedures in Criminal Cases,[1] the undersigned counsel, appearing before the Court in case number 14-CR-665, acknowledges that he/she is aware of two specific deadlines in criminal cases:

- Rule 11, Acceptance of Responsibility Statements and Objections to the Pre-Sentence Investigation Report (PSR)
  - If a defendant wishes to submit an acceptance-of-responsibility statement, he/she must do so at or before his/her pre-sentence investigation interview with a United States Probation Officer.
  - Objections to a PSR must be filed within 14 days of the PSR's disclosure. If additional time is required, counsel may request an extension of up to 5 working days from the Probation Office without filing a formal motion with the Court. If additional time is required beyond that, a motion for leave to file untimely objections should be filed immediately. A sample proposed order is available on the Court's website. Failure to file objections on time will result in a show-cause hearing where counsel will be asked to explain why the Court's deadline could not be met and why a motion for continuance was not filed. While late-filed objections will not be held against a defendant, the Court may impose monetary sanctions against counsel for not complying with the rules.
